There is a scarcity of paper of every sort except what blows about in the streets on a windy day and forms windrows knee deep. There's plenty of that.—Globe Democrat.

No one ever abbreviated "cholera" and "yellow fever" as they did "flu" in the United States. They treated them with respect. But we're getting impertinent about everything.—Globe Democrat.

WOMEN INSPECTORS

The state health commissioner of Oklahoma is going to appoint an experienced woman housekeeper as a state hotel inspector.

If competent housekeepers were inspecting meat and other products and watching the observance of law in other fields, there would be a tendency toward stricter standards.

Government and state inspection work has always seemed attractive to some political workers, who have looked on such positions as soft span jobs. But public welfare depends upon faithful performance of these duties. Competent women inspectors would bring a new spirit of housewifely thoroughness into many departments of public service.—Springfield Republican.

BENEFIT IS UNIVERSAL

Congressmen will have no more free seeds to distribute. The nation will save about $800 a day, and delivery from the temptation to be profane will be offered to those who used to plant the seeds and wait vainly for nature to do the rest.—Brooklyn Eagle

VALUE OF TREES AND SHRUBBERY

No matter how neatly a town may be kept, it will always have a bare and hard look unless it is well planted with trees and shrubbery. A small expenditure for trees and shrubbery will change a house into a home of beauty which will be a permanent possession.

A well chosen setting of shrubs, artistically arranged will make a setting of nature's loveliness for your dwelling. Flowers require more work but they give a note of good cheer and make a marvelous addition to the home place.

Private grounds which are beautified in this way add wonderfully to the total impression of the beauty of a town. A simple little home may be made a bower of beauty.

The primary election is just as important as the regular election. Good men must be nominated in order to be elected. At the primary election tomorrow vote for the men who will insure the future prosperity of the city. Show your interest in Monett's advancement by your ballot at the primary.

I believe in working, not weeping, in boosting, not knocking, and in the pleasure of my job. I believe that a man gets what he goes after, that one deed done today is worth two deeds tomorrow, and that no man is down and out until he has lost faith in himself.—Selected.

If you know how to spend less than you get you have the philosopher's stone.—Franklin.

In this era "woolly" is scarcely a term of reproach for the West.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

HIGHER EVALUATION
OF PROPERTY

St. Louis, Mo., March 12.—Mrs. George Gellhorn, President of the League of Women Voters, believes the women of the state can capture the aid of the party leaders and candidates for office for the teachers' cause through a little patient effort.

Mrs. Gellhorn feels there is not a man in the state who does not know of the crisis confronting the state's school system, and believes they all have an honest desire to have the property remedy applied.

"Education is not a party issue," she said. "The sons and daughters of all are entitled to the benefits of our schools, but they are having only half a chance at a good education now. Many of our best teachers are leaving the profession because the salaries are so low, and their places are being taken by men and women who are not prepared to teach. The condition must be corrected and the way to do it is to provide adequate salaries for teachers."

"We need higher evaluation of property, and the state board of equalization must see to it that the adjustment to keep pace with the times is made. Our political leaders would confer a service on the state if they would express themselves in favor of the remedy for the teacher shortage."

"The club women of the state can aid in providing relief," she said, "if they will devote a small amount of time to a conference with local party leaders, and win their support for the plan."

"Then," she said, "candidates would not find it embarrassing to go to the farming communities to ask for votes. 'Gaining relief through the State Board of Equalization,' she said, "will be a matter largely of public sentiment," and she urged all who have an interest in the schools to approve the idea by resolutions and send them direct to the state board at Jefferson City."

"Remedy through an amendment to the state constitution," Mrs. Gellhorn declared, "will rest with the next legislature. Submission of such an amendment to the people is of vital importance, for," Mrs. Gellhorn said, "the state has outgrown the limited school tax allowance provided in the present constitution."

TEN YEARS AGO

From the Daily Times, Mar. 21, 1910.

The state-wide prohibition campaign in Monett was opened Sunday night by a speech by Rev. J. O'Meara, deposed rector of the Episcopal church of Carthage. The opera house was crowded to the doors and many people went away who could not gain entrance to the room.

John McCormick, of east of town, was obliged to call for help last week to lift a span of mules from a well into which they had fallen.

H. T. Pinnell has purchased J. A. Montgomery's property in Forest Park and is moving to the same.

Mr. and Mrs. Port Rowden, of East St. Louis, are expected here this week. Mr. Rowden who has been in Y. M. C. A. work at that place, has been transferred to Texas.

Municipal Ownership Ticket—Mayor Perry Short; marshal, John Hagler; collector, O. Barker; treasurer, T. L. Harvey; police judge, D. N. Jewett; assessor, J. L. Moudy; city attorney, John T. Burgess; councilmen, J. L. Hobbs, John Moses, M. E. Loutzenhiser, R. C. Farrow and W. S. Blenherhasset.

For The Daily Times, March 22, 1910.

G. H. Baker, of Gainesville, Tex., and Miss Myrtle Miser, of Oklahoma City daughter of S. C. Miser, of our city were married at the Almeria Hotel, Sunday night, March 20, 1910. D. N. Jewett, Justice of the Peace, officiating.

On Monday evening, March 21, Miss Carrie Ball was united in marriage to Mr. Oliver Gulick.

The Purdy State Bank is celebrating its seventh year this week.

From the Daily Times Mar. 23, 1910.

The time for us to get busy on the federal building proposition is right now. Negligence at this time will give Webb City the building instead of Monett.

The foundation for W. W. Lehnhard's new residence on Frisco avenue is being laid.

Miss Pauline Armstrong has accepted a position in Peddy & Matthews shoe store.

WANTED

One Ford car with piston rings

The motor must hum and the gears must sing

Don't care for fenders—or seats of board

We'll make it go 'cause its a Ford.

A busted carburetor would be preferred

If it hits on one we wont say a word

A four year old would make us glad

The shock absorbers must be had.

With a spoke in each wheel we'd be content

No kick we'll make on an axle bent

We'll run on the rim 'till we get to the shop

Tune her up and how she'll hop.

Her speed will gain when we get through

Of course it may take a day or two

We'll give her oil—we'll give her juice

Pull down her ears and turn her loose

Now this old Ford was not to blame

It was driven in the mud, sun and the rain

The way it was handled, it was a sin

And the driver's to blame for the shape she's in.

—Wm. Burrows of the Ford Station.
